

Implicit Bias Training

In June 2020, University Librarian Elaine L. Westbrook announced the University Libraries’ Reckoning Initiative, an effort to grapple with the fact of systemic racism as it is perpetuated in our profession, in higher education, and in the University Libraries. Her announcement commits the University Libraries to move beyond platitudes into action, fully recognizing that this will require an individual commitment from each one of us to do our part in making this organization better and more just. As a new student employee, we ask that you complete the following training on Implicit Bias.

To begin the training:

1. Go to: <https://www.med.unc.edu/ahs/about-us/diversity/jeditoolkit/implicitbias/>
2. Watch the Implicit Bias video- 8 minutes and 9 seconds
3. Check the box below and sign the completion acknowledgement

I, _____ have completed the Implicit Bias training.
